TELEGRAPH SUMMARY.

In the McQuade trial Monday nothing of any importance was brought out.

Philip Handy (colored) fatally injured his wife with an axe in a quarrel in Syracuse, N. Y.

Colonel James Boone, a pioneer in railroad and telegraph building, died in Lancaster, Pa., aged 81.

The Twenty-seventh International Convention of the Y. M. C. A. will be held in San Francisco early in May, 1887.

Eleven of the Cohoes, N. Y., knitting mills resumed operations, practically ending the lock-out which began nine weeks ago.

The 27th international convention of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held in San Francisco early in May, 1887.

During the year 241,029,367 passengers were carried by rail over the Brooklyn bridge, the receipts from all sources being $842,949.

At Halifax, N. S., Henry Runney has been arrested for stealing $10,000 of funds of insurance companies, of which he was a trusted agent.

Charles Brown dropped dead from heart disease in Manistee, Mich., on Saturday evening while dancing with his two hours' bride.

A permit was granted in Baltimore for the burial of Henry Jones, colored, aged 118 years. The record papers of his freedom verify his age.

The arbitration committee of the baseball associations met in New York Monday. It is probable that all blacklisted men will be restored to membership.

In Ridgewood, L. I., early Sunday morning Christopher Homeyer was shot and fatally wounded by one of four men, supposed to be burglars, while standing on the stoop of his son's hotel.

The directors of the New York Third-avenue Railroad Company have voted to abandon the use of horses as a motive power and to introduce the cable system. The change will cost $1,500,000.

A mandement from Cardinal Taschereau prohibits Catholics from attending Salvation Army meetings, and directs that tracts and hymn-books distributed by the salvationists be destroyed.

The Sun says that evidence was presented to the grand jury that Juror Rosenberg, of the McQuade jury, is a personal friend of John Kernan and Alderman Farley. The Sun expressed fear that the jury is "fixed."

WASHINGTON NOTES.

John C. Miller, who was shot by George N. Walker last Wednesday, died yesterday.

Mr. Cox, of North Carolina, proposes to increase the salary of the Civil-Service Commissioners to $5,000.

James H. Neblett has been appointed postmaster at Neblett's, Lunenburg county, Va., and Samuel O. Page, at Hermitage, Augusta county.

Senator Cullom proposes to increase the pay of night printers in the Government printing-office from fifty to sixty cents per thousand.

Mr. Morrison has notified the House that on Saturday next he will move that the House go into Committee of the Whole to consider revenue bills.

It is proposed to allow the Woman's National Suffrage Convention to hold its session in the hall of the House of Representatives on the evenings of January 25th, 26th, and 27th.

Some of the debutantes this winter are Miss Manning, Miss Lamar, Miss Amelie West, Miss Lullie Eustis, Miss Alice Wilson, Miss Julia Edie, Miss Mary Sherman and Miss Otelia Mahone.

Secretary Manning has submitted to Congress a supplemental report, setting forth the necessity of an entire recast of our custom laws, but this, he says, should not be done until Congress has settled upon an amount and methods of tariff taxation. He holds that the duties on imports will continue to be the chief source of Federal revenue, but there is urgent need of a administrative reforms.

The measures presented in Mr. Morrison's and Mr. Randall's bills, the secretary thinks, will, if adopted with few amendments, tide us over our present difficulties.

LATEST FOREIGN NEWS.

Gladstone's Curt Reply.

LONDON, December 14.—Mr. Gladstone has given a curiously gratuitous rebuff to a number of ladies of Birmingham, who expressed to him in writing their sympathy with the women of Ireland in their demand for home rule. Gladstone replied rather curtly at the sentiment, but adds, "I regret you should be compelled to take part in rude contentions and labors with which I have had so long to do." As the woman suffrage party is growing steadily among the liberals in the commons, this remark was not good tactics, whatever else it may be.

The Action Against John Dillon.

DUBLIN, December 14.—Mr. John Dillon appeared for himself to-day in the action brought by the government against him for agitating in favor of the "plan of campaign." In his address to the court Mr. Dillon contended that the language he used in the speech selected as the basis of the prosecution was justifiable, and that the crown was straining the law against him.

The judge declared that the "plan of campaign" was clearly and absolutely illegal. He ordered Mr. Dillon to give a personal bond in the sum of £1,000, with two sureties for £1,000 each, for good behavior in the future within twelve days, or go to prison for six months.

Belfast Rioters Sentenced.

BELFAST, December 14.—Judge Lawson to-day sentenced four of the men arrested for wrecking houses along the Shank Hill road during the riots last June to four months imprisonment each. The prisoners had all pleaded guilty.

Very Frenchy.

PARIS, December 14.—During the trial of Jean Faure and Marie Plancher, for the murder of Claude Faure, in the Assizes at Privas Department of Ardelle, yesterday, the prisoners broke down and confessed their crime. Jean said he struck his victim several times with a crow-bar, causing death. He then, with a hatchet and saw, cut the body in pieces, which the woman boiled in the family cooking pot until the flesh separated from the bones. The flesh was fed to the pigs, and the bones, together with such parts of the body as the pigs refused to eat, were buried in the barnyard. The woman told a similar story, supplementing it with the statement that after boiling the pieces of Claude Faure's body she prepared soup for the family, herself included, in the same pot without having first cleaned it.

Shot in a Strike Riot.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 14.—At a late hour last night the man who was fatally shot in the street was identified as Benjamin Heinze by his brother, who stated that the unfortunate man was a farm hand, recently from the country, and was merely a spectator at the scene of the trouble.

Invaded by Cattle Men.

FORT KEOGH, MONTANA, December 14. Saturday last Agent Williamson issued an order to drive off the Crow reservation all cattle now pasturing there; also to burn some buildings and corrals recently erected near Bull Mountain station. If he meets with any resistance he will call for troops. He says no cattle men have received permits to graze on the reservation. It is anticipated that trouble will ensue in enforcing the order.

XLIXth CONGRESS.

Second Session.

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 14. SENATE.

Among the memorials presented in the Senate was one by Mr. Spooner from the German Aid Society, of Wisconsin, expressing the idea that there was no further necessity for stimulating immigration to this country, and that no satisfactory reason can be assigned for allowing foreigners to vote and hold office after one year's residence and before they are naturalized, and suggesting the enactment of laws making naturalization and suffrage conform to a uniform standard. Referred.

On motion of Mr. Hoar, the House amendment to the electoral count bill was non-concurred in and a conference asked. Senators Hoar, Edmunds and Pugh were appointed conferees on the part of the Senate.

The Committee on Finance this morning ordered a favorable report on the bill for the redemption and recoinage of the silver dollar with amendments providing that the amount to be redeemed shall not exceed $500,000 monthly, and it shall be counted as part of the monthly purchase of bullion for the mint.

The Senate took up the bill repealing the tenure of office law.

Mr. Edmunds opposed the bill, declaring that it was brought forward in apparent aid of the Democratic party and to relieve the President of the difficulties now attending removals and suspensions. It was an invitation to him to make short work of the whole civil service business and to expel from office at once all the officers who are within the purview of the statute. If the Senate voted to repeal that statute it would make a mistake which it would live to regret.

Mr. Hoar supported the bill. It seemed to him to be totally inconsistent with the constitutional theory of the Government for a President, in whom the executive power was expressly lodged by the Constitution, to be compelled to answer to that responsibility when instruments were forced upon him against his will, or in whom he had no confidence.

At 3 P. M., without action on the bill, the doors were closed, and the Senate went into secret executive session and referred to the appropriate committees the large number of nominations received from the President, and shortly afterwards adjourned.

HOUSE.

A bill was passed appropriating $10,000 for improving the approaches to the National Cemetery, near Danville, Va.

Bills were reported from the Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds providing for the erection of public buildings at Lynn, Mass., and Eastport, Me., and for the repair of the public buildings at Charleston, S. C. Referred to the Committee of the Whole.

The House then, in the morning hour, proceeded to consider a bill granting to the Cinnabar and Clark's Fork Railroad Company right of way through the Northern portion of Yellowstone Park.

The Democracy Triumphant.

BOSTON, December 14.—The municipal election to-day has resulted in the reelection of Mayor Hough O'Brien. The total vote, two precincts to hear from, was 44,629—of which O'Brien had 22,883, Hart (Rep) 18,174, McNall (Labor) 3,572, O'Brien's plurality 4,709, majority 1,137.

Accidentally Shot and Killed Himself.

FREDERICK, MD., December 14.—William Gilbert, aged 18, son of Mr. George A. Gilbert, a wool and shoe merchant, of this city, was carelessly handling yesterday morning in the tin shop of Charles Hahn a gun which he presumed to be empty. The weapon was discharged and its contents entered the right temple of the young man, causing instant death.

So Much for a Little Steal.

NEW YORK, December 14.—On their conviction of robbery in the Court of General Sessions yesterday, William Miles and Martin McDonald, young criminals, were sentenced to Sing Sing for ten years each. The aggregate value of the booty obtained by the fellows was less than $5.

The Banner State.

AUSTIN, December 14.—The official count of the vote for Governor and other State officers is now in progress in the office of the Secretary of State. The treasurer's vote was completed last night. It gives 230,399 for Lubbock (Democrat), 58,052 for Cleaves (Republican), and 14,682 for Jackson (Prohibitionist).

FINANCIAL.

Reported by C. W. Branch & Co., bankers and brokers, No. 1111 Main street.

New York Stock Market.

REVIEW.

NEW YORK, December 14.—The market opened quietly in a few instances responding to foreign quotations, but there seemed to be local selling orders, which were sufficient to retard any advance. As soon as these were filled, however, the tone became decidedly stronger, and the pressure to sell, which was noticeable yesterday, was not apparent. The erratic course of New England to-day has been a disturbing element, and the tightness of money has also helped to create an unsettled feeling, which it may take some little time to efface. The general public are inclined to be neutral for the present and to look on for a time before becoming again actively interested, and we still are inclined to think that we may not have any substantial improvement before the new year. At the same time the trunk lines must be doing a large and remunerative business, and this will probably have its effect on the prices of these securities as soon as speculation revives. The market ruled very weak late in the day, and closed very feverish under heavy selling of New England and some of the Southern stocks.

Money loaned as high as 15 per cent. and closed at about 10 per cent.
